AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

An Emigrant Train Robbed—The Boldest Act Yet.

The President Issues a Manifesto—The Chinese Bill Yet in the House—What a Circus Did.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

LOS VEGAS, N. M. May 4.— This morning at 3 o'clock the south-bound emigrant train, while standing on the siding at Glorieta, three desperate looking rustlers boarded the passenger coach and went through the passengers, robbing the badly frightened people without any resistance. The total amount of the losses foot up $500. The alarm was given as soon as the the road agents disappeared, but a search for them proved fruitless. The train continued its course, and from what can be learned carried the robbers to Lamy, where they robbed the depot, hotel, and McBeth's saloon, securing a great deal of miscellaneous plunder.

Silver King Dividend.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—Silver King declares a dividend of twenty-five cents.

Anti-Slickens.

SACRAMENTO, May 4.—At the evening session of the Debris Convention, after a further exchange of views, the Convention adjourned sine die, and the Supervisors of Yuba, Sutter, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Colusa and Yolo, met and arranged for a meeting this morning.

THE APACHE WAR.

Indians near Deming—Garcia's Victory Confirmed.

TUCSON, May 4.—A Star special from Deming says: A Government courier named Carrosico, under orders of Col. Forsythe, arrived here this morning with dispatches, and reports finding Indians about thirty-five miles of Deming. They chased him into Carisillo, where his horse gave out, and he came into town on foot all worn out. All the miners have come in from Treshermanoa. They report about 125 Indians in that section.

THE INDIANS AGAIN WHIPPED.

Willcox sends to Governor Tritle the following dispatch of General McKenzie, dated Santa Fe, May 3d: The following telegram was received late last night, dated The Field, April 30th, by courier to Deming: Prisoners here state that thirteen Indians were killed in the fight at Horsehoe canyon in the Stein Peak range, on the 28th. Signed, Forsythe, commanding.

CONFIRMED.

Also, in the field, April 28, from the same, the following: While on the march this morning I met Col. Garcia with a column of Mexican troops. Yesterday morning he attacked the Indians while I was in pursuit of and killed seventy-eight and took thirty-three prisoners. I returned immediately to Sepan, sending three companies of the Sixth Cavalry, under Capt Tupper, by way of Galeyville. This Indian band has been almost annihilated.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Arthur's Proclamation—The Cowbo s Must Subside.

President Arthur has issued the following proclamation:

WHEREAS, It is provided in the laws of the United States that wherever, by reason of unlawful obstructions, combinations or assemblages of persons, or rebellion against the authority of the Government of the United States, it shall become impracticable, in the judgment of the President, to enforce, by ordinary course, judicial proceedings or the laws of the United States within any State or Territory, it shall be lawful for the President to call forth the military of any State and employ such part of the land and naval forces of the United States as he may deem necessary to enforce the faithful execution of the laws of the United States, to suppress such rebellion in whatever State or Territory thereof the laws of the United States may be forcibly opposed or the execution thereof forcibly obstructed:

AND WHEREAS, It has been made to appear satisfactory to me, by information received from the government of the Territory of Arizona and from the General of the Army of the United States, and other reliable sources, that in consequence of the unlawful combinations of evil disposed persons, who are banded together to oppose and obstruct the execution of the laws, it has become impracticable to enforce by the ordinary course of judicial proceeding the laws of the United States within that Territory, and that the laws of the United States have been therein forcibly opposed and the execution thereof forcibly resisted.

AND WHEREAS, The laws of the United States require that whenever it may be necessary in the judgment of the President to use the military forces for the purpose of enforcing the faithful execution of the laws of the United States, he shall forthwith, by proclamation, command such insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within the limited time;

Now therefore, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens of the United States, and especially of the Territory of Arizona, against aiding, countenancing, abetting or taking part in any such unlawful proceedings, and I do hereby warn all persons engaged in or connected with said obstruction of the laws to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes on or before noon of the 15th day of May.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 2d day of May, in the year of our Lord 1882, and of the Independence of the United States one hundred and six.

By the President,

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

FRED. FRELINGHUYSEN,
Secretary of State.

STILL ON THE STAND.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The examination of Senator Blaine in the Shipherd affair was resumed this morning before the Committee on Foreign Relations.

RESIGNING.

It is reported that Senator Hill, of Georgia, has sent his resignation to the Governor, and that Senator Brown also contemplates resigning. Bad health is the cause. It is said that ex-Senator Gordon is to be appointed to one vacancy.

THE CHINESE BILL.

The House went into Committee of the Whole to-day, before the enrollment of the Chinese Bill and its comparison with the original manuscript had been completed. As the committee did not rise until five o'clock P. M. the announcement of its enrollment and signature by Speaker Kiefer occurred too late to admit of its being signed to-day by the presiding officer of the Senate, that body having previously adjourned, hence the bill will not reach the President until to-morrow; but the delay is probably immaterial, in view of the fact that the measure will not in any event be likely to receive his signature in advance of its being laid before the regular Cabinet meeting next Friday.

BARNUM'S CIRCUS DID IT.

There were not over twenty-five members in the House last evening when the Chinese bill was taken up. The whole thing was done with one motion. It happened that there were none of the stronger opponents of the bill present. The great majority of the members went to Barnum's circus yesterday afternoon. The attendance in the House being very slim last night. When they heard what had been done in their absence they were very mad, but have no way to help themselves. Had it been required to proceed to the business on the Speaker's table, it would have taken two months to get to the bill. One of the bills on the Speaker's table, and one that has been there for several weeks, is the Senate bill placing Grant on the retired list. Nothing could have been done with the Chinese bill till the Grant bill was got out of the way, either by passing or rejecting it. Among the noticeable incidents of yesterday's Senate proceedings was the announcement by Plumb, of Kansas, that if he had been present last Friday that he would have voted for the passage of the Chinese bill. This swells the number of Republican friends of the bill in the Senate to ten.

The Salvador Beached.

NEW YORK, May 4.—A dispatch received here says that the Pacific Mail steamer Salvador was beached at Punta Arenas, Central America. The passengers and crew were saved, and the cargo partially. There is but little hope of getting the vessel off.

Wyoming Indians on the Warpath.

OMAHA, May 4.- A report from Rawlins, Wyoming, states that the Bannocks and Snakes, whose reservation is in the Wind River Valley, near Fort Washakie, have gone on the warpath. General Crook gives official confirmation of the report. These Indians have been friendly for several years. There are about 2,500 of them. Fort Washakie is now without a garrison, as two companies of the Third Cavalry left there on Monday under orders to go to Arizona. It is believed that the Indians are about to take advantage of the absence of the military. A report comes from the operator at Rawlins that Fort Washakie is 150 miles north of the Union Pacific and has a telegraph line.

CHICAGO, May 4.—General Sheridan has no official information regarding the outbreak reported to have occurred at the Wind River Agency, among the Bannocks and Shoshones.

IRISH ITEMS.

Parnell says He was Released Sooner than He Expected.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The Herald's correspondent interviewed Parnell at Kingstown. He said: "Our release was anticipated, but came sooner than expected. It is entirely unconditional. I think the government intends to pursue a conciliatory policy, the result of which will be a diminution of the outrages and an improvement in the condition of affairs in Ireland. I shall lend all my influence to that end, but success will depend materially upon the nature and extent of the remedial legislation proposed, and upon the early and unconditional release of Michael Davitt and other popular leaders. I can form no opinion as to who would free himself from the influence of Dublin Castle and render Irish representation possible in Irish affairs. I hope for the abolition of the system of military magistrates and police, which is fatal to good order. I believe the change in the course of the government indicates an intention to consider the question of self-government in Ireland upon the satisfactory solution of which, after the settlement of the land question, must depend the prosperity of Ireland.

DUBLIN NEWS.

DUBLIN, May 4. Parnell, Dillon and O'Kelly started last night for Holyhead.

Three members of the Land League of Tralee have been sentenced to six months' imprisonment in default of bail.

Many suspects have been released from Clonmel and Kilmainham jails. The release of the Land Leaguers was celebrated last night at Balla, Belfast, Cork, Limerick, Londonderry and Younhall with torchlight processions, bonfires, illuminations, etc. General tranquility prevailed.

The United Ireland has an article headed, "Coercion gives up the ghost," and asks the people not to lose their heads with giddy joy. "Coolness and courage," it says, "is as needful to secure what we have won as they were to win it."

GLADSTONE'S RETREAT.

A cable special to the New York Herald from London, says: Seldom has it been the lot of a premier to announce a change of policy amid such derision as was manifested in the House this evening. Gladstone seemed to feel himself in a false position. His anxiously awaited statement was made with an air of timidity quite foreign to him, and with a brevity of phrase altogether unusual. His embarrassment was especially evident when he endeavored to show consistency and unchanging purpose on the part of the Government, while to the sense of the whole House he was announcing a retreat all along the line. The mocking laughter and bitter scorn, wherewith from time to time, his words were greeted, made the scene painful.

A WORD IN DEFENSE.

The press of Southern California, outside of this county, have been giving Los Angeles some hard knocks about her apathy and lack of public spirit in not properly supporting her fairs, and in allowing the horticultural pavilion to be sold to satisfy a mortgage debt. Are those persons aware that the people of Los Angeles—the merchants and business men—have expended well nigh the enormous sum of one hundred thousand dollars within a few years past to provide fairs for this city and county? We contend that no people has ever shown a more liberal spirit or been more free to assist in projects of this kind and similar public enterprises. The sum of sixty thousand dollars was subscribed to purchase and improve the grounds known as Agricultural Park. This was supplemented afterwards with another subscription of twelve thousand dollars—raised by the business men of Los Angeles.

The Horticultural Society was organized and twenty thousand dollars raised to build the pavilion—all by the business men of Los Angeles—making a total of ninety-two thousand dollars for fair purposes raised and applied in the city of Los Angeles. Nor is this all. Los Angeles reached her centenary last fall and a call was made for a thousand dollars with which to properly celebrate the event. The people responded so liberally that over twelve hundred dollars was collected. Our honored President was shot to death and a committee of citizens thought it becoming and appropriate to fittingly observe the occasion and issued a call for a tho usand dollars tomeet the neccessary expenses. This likewise resulted in considerably more than that amount being subscribed, the amount exceeding twelve hundred dollars, if we remember correctly. On numerous occasions of public receptions when our business men have been called upon to provide entertainment for guests of the city their response has been so liberal that the residue left after paying all expenses has enriched the coffers of many of the charitable institutions of this city. And speaking of charitable institutions, reminds us that there are but few, if any, other towns in the country where charities are dispensed so liberally as in Los Angeles, or where so abundant provision has been made for the wants of the poor and needy, from the Orphan's Home for the little ones to the hospital across the river, for older persons, and those supplemented by at least half a dozen benevolent societies who see that none suffer within our borders without extending aid. The causes of the failures of the fairs will have to be sought elsewhere than in the apathy or lack of enterprise among our business men, and of this we shall perhaps have to say in the future. The people of this city have always responded to every call upon them and no better record can be shown than theirs.

We learn that the management of the Agricultural Society contemplate, in the event of certain contingencies, holding the fair at some other point this Fall, but we consider that if such a step is taken a great wrong will be done our people.

"When the people act unitedly, they are a power that cannot be resisted. The victory over the new Constitution is a notable instance."

The above is from a communication in the Express, an esteemed evening publication, replying to our remarks of yesterday on the proposed attempt to nominate General Stoneman for Governor by the Democrats. If ever a comparison was "odorous," the one made by this unfortunate correspondent is so. If the proposition is to put such another infliction upon the people as the new Constitution and a Railroad Commission, God save the Commonwealth, say we. The correspondent entirely mistakes us in intimating that we, as a Republican, would object to the nomination of Gen. Stoneman. On the contrary, we desire a foeman worthy of our steel, and the average Democrat is not. And beside we feel an affection for the General, for he was in the army when the army was killing Democrats, and we used to pray for as much success to his labors as was consistent with the Divine will! Ah, by far, rather the General than a Democrat of the other wing.

Mrs. Fox, an old lady nearly seventy, living eight miles east of Oroville, has been missing for ten days. She was a widow, living alone. Parties have been searching, without finding any trace of her.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL BUILDING.

Since our last item great progress has been made at the Normal School. The roof is nearly finished excepting a portion of the ornamental work. The plumbing is about completed, and the lathing is well advanced.

In common with many others we have made the ascent of the building, and enjoyed the magnificent view to be had from its roof. The view is by far the finest to be had from any point in the city. The panorama takes in the entire stretch of country from the Cahuenga mountains, along the water front southward towards Newport, and back to the rolling hills dividing our own from the San Gabriel and San Jose valleys, and with the Sierra Madre and San Bernardino mountains for a back ground. In clear weather the Pacific Ocean will be plainly visible, and with a good glass, with which the building will doubtless be provided, steamers and vessels can undoubtedly be distinguished at Santa Monica and San Pedro. The visitor to the building is impressed with the wisdom of the selection of the site for this building, both for healthfuiness and the superb view obtainable from it. The building is visible miles away from the west, south and east, and intermediate points.

MR. PALMER, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the State Senatorship, states that under no consideration will he be a candidate for any office before the people, and that the use of his name was wholly unauthorized. He is out of politics entirely, and physical infirmities, if no other cause, would prevent him from entering the political arena.

A QUEER CASE.

EDITOR TIMES: The Supervisors have promulgated a large number of circulars deprecating, as they ought, the enormous expense that the breakers of the Sunday law have forced on the tax-payers of this county, but, astonishing to say, instead of addressing their deprecatory advice to the law-breakers, they coolly request all the officers and all fair-minded citizens to aid the Board in their efforts to save the tax-payers of the county from having an enormous extra burden imposed upon them!"

We have got used to hearing demagogues talk in this way, but to have so grave and reverend a body of seignors as our Board of Supervisors grab the tail of the bull instead of the horns in this fashion, rather stumps some of us

TAX-PAYERS.

THAT RESOLUTION AND CIRCULAR.

The Board of Supervisors and the and the Sunday Law.

The following resolution was offered by Supervisor Egan:

WHEREAS, A number of irresponsible persons have filed large numbers of criminal complaints against supposed violators of the so-called Sunday law; and,

WHEREAS, The expense of trying cases for the violation of said law cannot well be less than $150 in each case; and,

WHEREAS, There are already some 300 cases commenced, and if the present rate of filing complaints continues, there will be some 2,000 in all before the Legislature meets, which will cost the county $300,000 if tried, and accomplish nothing save the financial ruin of the county; theerfore,

Resolved, That the Clerk be instructed forthwith to have printed 200 copies of the following circular:

To the District Attorney and Justices of the Peace of Los Angeles County:

GENTLEMEN; If the present system of so-called Sunday law prosecutions is allowed to continue, the county treasury will be depleted, and an enormous burden of taxation forced upon our people; therefore, the Board of Supervisors, as guardians of the taxpayers' interests, call upon you to observe the following rules in relation to criminal prosecutions under the so-called Sunday law:

The District Attorney will cease appointing outside attorneys, as special deputies, for the prosecution of these cases, and will attend to all prosecutions himself, or by his regular deputies, as the regular business of the county will permit. There is no reason why any exceptions shall be made in favor of prosecutions for violations of the Sunday law to the detriment of the regular business of the county.

All persons desiring violaters of the Sunday law prosecuted, will leave the names of the violaters and the witnesses in each case with the District Attorney, who will take them up and try them in regular order as he has time.

Justices of the Peace will, whenever any person comes to them to file complaints in this class of cases, refer such persons to the District Attorney, and file only such complaints as the District Attorney approves. In all cases where persons attempt to file complaints out of the township where the offence is alleged to have been committed, the Justice should send such persons to the Justice of the township where the offence has been committed.

Justices are referred to Sec. 23 of the Act to regulate fees and salaries in the county of Los Angeles, Statutes 1878, which reads as follows: "No officer shall issue a subpœna for a witness on behalf of the public unless he deems that the public interest requires it, unless the prosecutor or other party demanding it shall advance the witness fees." Large numbers of witnesses are subpœnaed in this class of cases, when, as a rule, the defendants do not dispute the facts, therefore Justices should limit the number of witnesses for the prosecution, unless the prosecutors advance the fees.

Justices of the Peace are requested not to recognize outside attorneys as prosecutors unless they appear in conjunction with the District Attorney or his regular deputies. The attention of the District Attorney and Justices of the Peace is especially called to Sec. 1385, Penal Code, and they are earnestly requested to exercise whatever power they have thereunder, to the fullest extent possible.

In conclusion, we request all the law officers of the County, and all sensible, fair-minded citizens, to aid this Board in their efforts to save the tax-payers of this County from having an enormous extra burden imposed upon them.

While not desiring in any way to clog the wheels of justice, or to shield criminals, this Board cannot refrain from expressing an opinion that, in view of the fact that numerous cases have been prosecuted and tried, with a failure to convict, further agitation on this question had better be deferred until the next Legislature meets, when the will of the people, through their representatives, will say whether the Sunday law shall continue on the statute books and be enforced, or be repealed.

In conclusion this Board advises all ustices, Constables, witnesses and urors that they will resist to the utmost xtent of the law, the payment of any fees in so-called Sunday law cases, hich are incurred in any manner in pposition to the rules for the prosecution set forth herein.

WHY HALT YE!

A trouble among many other troubles, which, like the inhabitants of a hornet's nest, wearies the average Democrat, is the date of holding the State Convention. No decision has as yet been arrived at for the day for the gathering of the clans. There appears to be a fear to move in advance of the Republicans. A day has been set in June—the 20th, we believe—but it is now the talk of the weary ones to move a postponement until after the Republican Convention shall meet and then see what advantages may be taken of its shortcomings. This lack of courage in avowing its policy, and taking its place before the world, reminds us of an anecdote of the old lady who was asked her opinion of a neighbor: "Sometimes I think, and again I don't know, but on the whole I think he is just about such a man as I take him to be."

He is negotiating with the Los Angeles Packing Co. for material wherewith to manufacture lard oil. The doctor understands the oil business thoroughly, and reports that he believes there is no better opening anywhere than in this city and county for a manufactory of castor, linseed, neatsfoot and lard oils.

Westminster.

J. F. Sherwood, of Westminster, made his regular weekly call at the TIMES office yesterday. He remarked that the recent picnic held at Anaheim Landing reminded one somewhat of a Quaker's meeting—they waited for the spirit to move them. However, they had dancing, rowing and a run along the beach. Harry Stevens says he has the premium piece of barley in the county. Joseph Clark's wife is seriously ill at the residence of his father, J. M. Clark. The nucleus of a good library has been secured by the Good Templars of Westminster. Rev. Robert Strong made a donation of forty volumes to commence with, and the lodge subsequently purchased forty additional volumes. They expect to have a handsome library room with a large and diversified catalogue of volumes in a short time.

PASADENA.

Swan, Miss Emma Morrison, Miss E. Neubecker, Miss Kitty Foote, Miss E. J. Whittier, Mr. S. D. Bryant and Asahel Foote. The "tear" will be a short one, as most of them return in the course of three or four months.

Mr. Vore last week sold four acres of his unimproved land in the Lake Vineyard colony to Captain Robinson, the price paid being $250 per acre. This is the best price yet realized in Pasadena for unimproved land. But your correspondent ventures the assertion that within a year the Captain, as well as any others who may be fortunate enough to hold Pasadena real estate improved or unimproved will have many an opportunity to refuse from 25 to 50 per cent. in advance of present prices.

Mine host Griswold, of the Lake Vineyard House, informs your correspondent that the call for accommodations still continues, he having had five or six applications to-day, more than he could accommodate.

Mr. Cambell sold his improved place in the Indiana colony, containing twenty-five acres for $9,500, last week to Mr. McGregor of Montana.

The entertainment at the school house last Saturday evening was a decided success. About $30 was realized which will be placed to the credit of the Organ Fund.

Mr. Griswold has had some very neat sign boards placed in convenient places indicating the route to be taken by the visitor, who may be in search of a good meal.

Strawberries are selling at three quarts for twenty-five cents.

Mr. Fessenden leaves for the East next week but will take a dip in the Pacific at Santa Monica before his departure.

Calico Mountain.

The Steamship Company's Office on Commercial street has a picture of Calico Mountain, San Bernardino county, painted in the chromes taken from the ores of the mountain itself. The varied hues caused the name Calico to be applied to it. The picture says there are some seventeen or eighteen mines located thereon, and a village of twelve board houses and a canvas tent. Some very rich ore is found on this many-colored hill, which is situated in the Mojave desert, north of San Bernardino.

COMPTON PICNICING.

A Good Time all Around—Addressed by Rev. M. M. Bovard.

A picnic was held under the auspices of Evergreen Lodge of Good Templars at the camp meeting grove in Compton on last Saturday. The charming and gallant abstainers met at Fraternity Hall at 10 o'clock in the morning, ornamented themselves with appropriate regalia for the occasion and wended their way in a "go-as-you-please" manner to the grove, about half a mile distant, some with carriages which accommodated a goodly numbers, others with those noted buggies which seemed to have exactly the seating capacity of two and no more, and so on down to the "vehicles" which nature provided.

Mr. Frank Caseres, the Worthy Chief Templar of the Lodge, called the assembly to order, which numbered between three and four hundred people, making a few preliminary remarks and reading a recommendation for signature drawn up by a committee of the "Protective Union," lately organized. An opening ode was sung by a few Comptonians, Miss Mary Whaley playing the organ. Rev. M. M. Bovard, President of the Southern California University, was engaged for the occasion, and next came before the people and delivered an able and comprehensive temperance oration. Rev. Mr. Bovard is well known in Compton, and has endeared himself to many of the people, and his demeanor is such that wherever he goes an accumulation of steadfast friends is the natural consequence.

Immediately after the closing song, the lunch baskets suffered, being emptied of their contents upon the spreads and laid upon nature's table in the shade of the willows, and the victuals seemed to be willing martyrs to mastication. A table of ice cream, lemonade, and confectionery was near at hand, conducted by one of Compton's respected ladies, Mrs. Hazen.

On the whole, it was a quiet but pleasant occasion, and not a break in the general harmony, which speaks well for Compton and vicinity, J. F. C.

MATCHED.

Marrying and Giving in Marriage—The Parties.

The following marriage licenses were filed in the County Recorder's office during the month of April: C. Acunya and D. Leiva, E. B. McDonald and Huldah Breeding, F. D. Givens and L. M. Ogilvie and Mary Smith, Theodore Mundell and Annie Madison, T. B. Merchan and A. J. Beeler, William Evans and Mary I. Shelley, T. P. Frazer and Sarah H. Morgan, T. Baca and M. Another Manufacturing Enterprise.

Mr. W. T. Williams late of Kansas City, a practical photographer has decided upon starting a manufactory of photographic dry plates in this city at once, and possesses ample capital to insure complete success in his undertaking. Mr. Williams has been induced to locate his factory here (the only one on this coast) in view of the fact that in the process of manufacturing the plates a uniform temperature is an important essential, and the proverbially equable climate of Los Angeles will enable him to operate his manufactory all the year round.

GARDEN GROVE.

A Racy Letter from Our Special Correspondent.

May-day—"Stay Witham"—"It's a Girl"—Mrs. Bessonett's Cats and Motherly Hens—Dejected Chinamen.

MAY 3, 1882.

EDITOR TIMES: There were no "doings" here May Day, most of our young people going to the beach and canons, where they had the usual amount of joy.

Mr. "G. O." Witham has finished boring a well and has put up a windmill. We hope this well will "stay Witham" which the last failed to.

We are glad to see our friend Mr. Martin on the street again. He is more robust than before his illness.

Mr. Howe and family have returned from the mountains, declaring that they have not seen a more agreeable place than this in their absence. Howe is that?

Mr. Handsacker has built an addition to his house on account of the addition to his family. This time it's a girl, a—sister-in-law.

We saw a laughable phenomena yesterday. Mrs. Geo. Bessonett has a couple of brown-leghorn hens which were very anxious to sit, and despite the fact that all the eggs were removed they continued to sit on the nests. One day while the hens were off feeding, two cats found the nests and immediately took possession, with their eight kittens (four apiece). On the return of the hens there was a fierce conflict, in which there was a serious loss in fur and feathers, eventually terminating in the defeat of the maternal felines; the hens instantly confiscating the kittens, hovering them in the most approved hen fashion. In the course of a couple of hours the captives began to feel the pangs of hunger, and after making a thorough investigation seemed at last to have arrived at the painful conclusion that their adopted mothers were anything but mammals; the discovery of which caused them to give vent to the most appalling chorus of "meows" on record. The vanished cats took this as an indication that the hens were doing some mortal injury to their offspring, when they made a simultaneous dash to the rescue, and were once more routed, while the hens again sat down on the starving, squirming kittens, making futile efforts to quiet them by clucking, scratching, and trying to turn them over as hens do eggs while hatching, evidently being totally at a loss to determine from their appearance whether they were still in embryo, or chickens of fantastic form. However they seemed bent on waiting developments while the poor kittens indulged in the most agonizing cries, which were answered by the mothers who stood as close as safety would admit of. Finally one cat seemed determined to go to her family let the consequences be what they might, and although the hen beat her unremittingly for about a minute with her wings, amused herself for another minute by plucking out enough fur to made a small pincushion, still Tabby submitted—actually "sacrificed herself on the altar of affection!" After a time the hen grew tired and seemed to take a different view of the situation, and the last I saw of them the kittens were greedily dining, while the hen was making a desperate effort to reach her wings over mother and kittens.

Garden Grove is not behind in any thing. We saw a race the other day which did credit to all parties concerned. An elderly gentleman and lady drove to a house on Harmony Avenue, where the latter alighted, the former driving away. After a moment we saw a stout lady emerge from the house, and looking after the receding vehicle shouted lustily. Not being heard, she ran to overtake him. The fact is she flew and so did the dust. The chickens which happened to be in her way flew, followed by her hat, apron, and slippers; the latter describing an oblique angle, and reminding us of two immense prairie hens flying before a ruthless Minnesota hunter. After running about a block, she returned, picking up her scattered raiment. Wishing to learn the particulars for your not-to-be-done-without paper, we boldly interviewed her, but could elicit nothing except that the owner of the team lived in Westminster. We expressed our astonishment that such a small town, comparatively speaking, should boast such fast trotters, when we learned that the old gentleman had recently fed them on Garden Grove hay!

Your expose of the Chinamen has had its effect here, and they now get such cool receptions that I am rejoiced to be able to chronicle the fact that they are looking quite dejected. This might seem uncharitable to your many Eastern suscribers, but they don't "Sabby" John as we do. Mrs. Harmon refused to buy vegetables of them, when one fellow, probably remembering Arthur's veto, called her a "dlamn fool!" We hope soon to be able to have a "clean meal" three times a day, when Mr. Gwin begins to sell vegetables. His garden is so large that he can easily supply the entire community.

The farmers have begun to cut hay which is not going to be as heavy a crop as was anticipated. Fruit trees are all heavily loaded with the exception of the plum trees (red). Will some one tell us why this fruit drops off a few days after it is formed, and give a remedy, if any is known? LA FERMETE.

Westminster Items.

WESTMINSTER, May 3, 1882.

The 1st of May has come and gone. The picnic at Anaheim Landing was well attended. People from all parts of the county were there and had a good time. Ice-cream and lemonade and candy were in demand. The ladies realized a goodly sum for their bell, and I hope we shall soon have the pleasure of hearing it ring to call us to Church.

May festivities were scarcely over when the sad news of the death of J. F. Marquis was brought from Los Angeles. He died at 8 o'clock in the morning of May 1st. A large delegation of Westminster people attended his funeral at Anaheim May 2d.

A Mr. Patterson, brother-in-law to Mr. Wm. McPherson, has been looking over the county for the last two weeks for a house and came back to Westminster and says it suits him well enough; consequently he will settle here.

I saw Mr. Bushard's fish corral this morning, situate at Bolsa Chica. As the fish went up the stream to spawn he stretched a net across and caught them, or as he says, corraled them, and I should think he could supply the county with fish for some time, by the looks of them.

We are having a good deal of foggy weather, which will help grain some to fill out. F. S.

Cheap Books.

Mr. Roman, of A. Roman & Co. booksellers and stationers of San Francisco, is in the city with a large selection of valuable and attractive books which he will dispose of by auction. He has procured a stand at Northcraft & Clark's store, corner of Main and Arcadia streets and will be open for business on Saturday next. This is Mr. Roman's first visit to Los Angeles and he is both surprised and pleased to find so handsome and pleasant a little city.

DUARTE.

May Day Picnic—Crowning the Queen of May.

May Day was celebrated upon the Duarte by a picnic under the auspices of the Union Sunday School. It was in every way a success. An excellent programme had been prepared, including the crowning of the Queen of May and the play at the May pole. Mrs. M. Wardall, assisted by others, furnished the music for the occasion.

In a grove of liveoaks olose to Mr. Bronson's store a platform, throne, swings, pole, etc., had been erected ready for the exercises of the day. The most of the neighborhood was present, besides some visitors, among whom were Rev. Mr. Fiske and family, of Santa Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman, of Westminster, Miss Earle of Placentia, Dr. Allen and family and others from Pasadena. The young people first had a procession and came marching down through the grove to crown their May Queen. Under the spreading branches of a large oak were assembled the multitude in front of the throne, which was decked profusely with white roses, orange blossoms and sprigs of cypress. When the procession arrived, the anthem, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul" was sung, followed by a prayer by Rev. Mr. Fiske. Mr. A. T. Taylor then made a short, happy speech, well adapted to the occasion. A May-day song was then sang, joined by a full chorus of voices. Without going into further detail respecting the literary exercises, which were all rendered well and in perfect order, we will say that Miss Gertie Mullally was the Queen of May, and that she possessed all the requisites of a fair, youthful monarch. Miss Jennie Shrode was the crowner, and Miss Frankie Wardall the scepter-bearer. The Maids of Honor were Misses Anna Fowler, Lida Barnes, Mabel Wardall, Lizzie Miller, Luella Mullally, Vina Beardslee, Fannie Carter, Viola Shrode and others. Masters Charley Taylor, Lee Shrode, Lennie Wilson, Willie Taylor and others took prominent parts. The May-pole was a very interesting feature, and the maneuvers were beautifully performed. Basket dinners and a general good time followed. It will long be remembered by those participating as one of the happy days. CUMTUX.

FROM SANTA ANA.

The Building Boom Continues—Wants to be Incorporated.

EDITOR TIMES: Your paper is a credit to you and the city in which you live in. That is how we feel in Santa Ana about the TIMES, and also the MIRROR, and by occasional expressions from outsiders we find that it is getting to be more and more the universal opinion throughout this County. We have in either of the above mentioned papers one we can send back East to our friends and not feel ashamed of them.

The wave of prosperity is still rolling in this part of our Heaven blessed County. Santa Ana is all life and activity. Brick masons are at great demand—five dollars a day are being paid, and many more could find employment if they came. We have a great deal of bricklaying to be done here this year. We think that by the close of the building boom, we shall be enabled to put on quite Metropolitan airs; certainly it is high time Santa Ana was incorporated.

The Sunday law is observed well in this town. All the respectable element is a unit for maintaining the Sabbath in a civilized manner; there are, of course, a few, as there will be in all communities, some of the lower element, whose coarse and sordid nature delight in the baser ways of humanity; and so long as the almighty dollar can be obtained, every vestage of principle and moral decency would be sacrificed to obtain it.

Santa Ana can now boast of a free reading-room in addition to its Public Library. This speaks well for the social culture of its people. Four years ago the gentleman who is the founder of our Public Library spent much time and energy making it a success. The many obstacles he had to contend against would have quenched a less resolute spirit, but he is of that class who never says fail, and to his indomitable will we are now indebted for this ornament to our town.

May Day was celebrated here by two picnics during the day and two balls in the evening. Business was almost totally suspended.

Decoration Day will be duly observed by the Post here of the G. A. R. Great preparations are being made to make it one of the events of the season. There are a noble set of men within its ranks, well capable of doing what they set out to do.

We would say more, but lately there has been so many correspondents from here, and some far from representing facts or even correct names of parties represented, that we fear there will be an overdose of Santa Ana if we do not make our article short. REPORTER.

In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvellous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in throat and chests disorders, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and operation, physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its healing effects, and will always cure where cures are possible.
